Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Forty-Sixth Annual Meeting of the Maryland State Teachers Association, 1940 There has been more than a traditional respect for the idea that unless the meeting of the Maryland State Teachers Association be held at some resort-place the enrollment would be a failure. It can be said to the credit of the Association that the spirit which dominates its membership is of such an order as to put to flight any such false notions. The Annapolis meeting is a complete answer to the oft repeated charge that teachers attend this annual gathering primarily for pleasure, and because of an opportunity to spend a few days at the seaside or in some mountain resort. It is now plain the real motive is educational or professional. Teachers, first of all, want to keep in touch with questions which affect their work; they want the inspiration and encouragement which come from participation in the program or listening to the expressed ideas of those whose opportunities have been better than theirs and they appreciate an interchange of views on matters of common interest. Annapolis, the capital of our State, could not make its appeal to our school people that it is a pleasure resort, but barring one or two meetings, the enrollment this year (nearly eight hundred) is as good as we have ever had. We have every reason to feel proud of the results of our last meeting. A city of ten thousand inhabitants made preparation for the meeting, and in this way there was a public interest in and appreciation for our program which it is not possible to obtain in the customary meeting place. There are good...
