A NTI-CLIMAXES are stupid--especially in the marvelous flush of spring-time and the glorious awakening of May days. And the Peace Conference is an anti-climax. What a bore it is! An odd half-dozen of middle-aged gentlemen with a terrific sense of their own importance and responsibility swapping nations over the table, while the editors and quasipoets and pseudo-literary quidnuncs write high-flown paragraphs and loudly demand that the great sacrifice of blood and treasure (always blood and treasure, you know--that sounds so well over the morning coffee) shall not be rendered vain. What do the gentlemen know about blood and treasure? What are blazing planes or bursting whizz-bangs or stifling...
