C. : The Office, 1997 OCLC Number: (OCOlc)38420362 Subject: Administrative agencies -- United States -- Data processing. Excerpt: . . . B-272843 by employees has been drafted and was undergoing management review and clearance. NOAA reported that two employees were given 14-day suspensions for downloading sexually explicit material, and dismissal proceedings were initiated against one employee for sending threatening e-mail. Officials at the three federal organizations at which we performed additional work told us that the detection of misuse of Internet access is primarily a supervisory responsibility. They told us that other than supervisory monitoring, they do not routinely or systematically monitor employee use of the Internet. Our review of the 28 federal organizations having guidance showed that at least 16 stated that employees use of government-provided Internet resources may be monitored. On April 18, 1997, we requested comments on a draft of this report from Agency Comments OMB the Director of. We also requested comments on excerpts of this report from the Secretary, Department of Commerce; the Secretary, SSA, where we Department of the Interior; and the Acting Commissioner, performed additional...
