Excerpt: .1842. sir, We, the undersigned magistrates acting in the district and neighbourhood of Ashton-under-Lyne, feel ourselves called upon by duty no less than inclination to express to you our high sense of the important services rendered by you in aiding us in the preservation of the public peace during the late tumultuous scenes of riot and disturbance; and we are most anxious to express to you our thanks for the energy and promptitude evinced by you in attending to our suggestions on all occasions. We also beg you, Sir, to be good enough to convey to the officers and privates of the Royal Dragoons, the Royal Horse Artillery, and the several detachments of infantry under your command, our thanks for their important services; and we had the greatest pleasure in noticing the orderly and correct deportment in quarters of the non-commissioned officers 1842.
