Excerpt: . THE DIARY [The spelling of the Diary has been preserved in the reprint, but as there is no attempt at punctuation in the original, stops have here been added to make some of the entries more intelligible. The writer's capital letters, too, have not been strictly followed in the reprint.] 1811 November. Thursday 28th. At night went Out and got 3, Jack me Hospital Crib, * Benj, Danl Bill to Harpers, ! Jack me 1 big Gates, J sold 1 Taunton D S Thomas s. [* Slang for a burial-ground.] [] Harper is probably the name of the keeper of a burial-ground.] [This occurs often in the Diary, and was evidently a favourite place for meeting. It was, doubtless, the entrance to some burialground, but there is no evidence by which the place can be definitely determined.] Friday 2gth....
