The union medical officer, should also be requested to report any first case (amongst paupers) of small-pox or enteric fever, and the inspector be desired to be vigilant in carrying out Paragraph 9, Section III., of order for inspectors. The attention of the inspector should be called to the concluding part of Paragraph 7, Section III., of the order for inspectors. With judicious inspectors it is confidently anticipated that no difficulty or eventual miscarriage of justice will arise from the possible inaccessibility, for the moment, of the officer of health. Factories already under Government inspection will not come under the jurisdiction of the health officer, unless they are injurious to the health of the neighbourhood. With respect to this paragraph the health officer would be glad of directions.-0.2. G 3 The No.7jDUtriot. 54 REPORTS ON THE WORKING OF THE Beportof Uvedale Corbett, The medical officer will specially report at the time any unusual action or any case inEsq. volving important principles, and will submit the respective books to each sanitary authority--at least once every three months.
